Dear Friends

Today, during our morning service, we'll be welcoming Jemima Smalley and Sophie Bailey to take the bread and wine of Communion for the first time. For many years at All Saints, we've 'Admitted Children to Communion' at a stage in their lives when they are ready to do so. Jemima and Sophie have both been baptised; and they've both been prepared for this day by our Children's Church leaders, Julie Lodge and Jeanette Whiteman. I'm delighted that both girls are ready to take this step of faith, and we welcome their family and friends who will be supporting them today.

The Communion Service is central to our worship, and to the Christian faith. On the night before he died, Jesus took the bread and wine, and said, 'This is my body'; 'This is my blood' (Mark 14:22-24). He was instituting a new covenant, based not on Law, but on Grace – the grace and loving mercy we find in our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ. During our service today, we'll be exploring more about that 'new covenant', and how it is realised during our Communion service. As we share the bread and wine today, along with Sophie and Jemima, I pray that we will be bound together, ever more closely, as members of the Body of Christ at All Saints.

Mission Focus for June: Mosaic Middle East (MME)

A message to All Saints' Church from Helen Jackson, Executive Director, MME: "The Middle East continues to face immense difficulties; conflict, displacement, and the struggles of vulnerable communities remain stark realities. Yet, in the face of these trials, your support has enabled MME to continue bringing hope, help and healing to those in greatest need. Thanks to you, minority communities and those displaced by conflict have found shelter, support and a renewed sense of dignity. Your generosity is making a tangible difference every single day."

So, let us keep the work of MME ever in our prayers. Further information (about one of the hospitals in Gaza) will be found in the June Magazine

Queen Eleanor's School Prayer Spaces: This week on Monday and Tuesday the whole Queen Eleanor community will be coming to All Saints for their Prayer Spaces week. Prayer activities will take place on the field, the orchard and the Garden of Remembrance. Please pray for Queen Eleanor's School during this important week.

Orchard Project Volunteer Morning, Saturday 28th June, 10.30am – 1pm: We'll be working on the compost area, watering, and keeping on top of unwanted weeds – the raised beds, flower bed and round the fruit trees and saplings. We'll check and re-mow the pathways through the bottom of the orchard as necessary. Meet by the metal shed (bring suitable tools you can use and gardening gloves).

We'd really appreciate help with watering the raised beds and wildflower meadow area during the dry summer months. If you have time in the week do please get in contact with the team/church office.

Sunday 6th July at 10am is 'Godparent's Sunday'. In our Café-style service, we'll be welcoming Godparents of children and adults who have been baptised at All Saints in recent years. There will be songs, drama, activities for children, coffee and croissants and an opportunity to renew the vows that parents and Godparents made at the baptisms of their children. Please contact Godparents and invite them to come to this very special service. Please bring the baptism candles with you – if you can find them!
